DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Applicant's election without traverse of Specie III. in the reply filed on 3-24-05 is acknowledged. Accordingly, claims 1-12,14-24,30-32 and 35-45 are withdrawn from further consideration.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 13,25-29,33,34,47 and 48 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. It is acknowledged that Applicant has indicated that the instant specification that adapter 12 can be either a passive or an active device (see page 12, line 23). With respect to the embodiments set forth in Figures 7-9 (i.e. active device), Applicant has generically set forth components (i.e. manual pumps, electronic pumps, power sources, electrical connectors, switches, logic control units, monitoring systems, displays, indicator lights, and solar cells) that cooperate together to form a complete operable device or adapter 12, while negating any particulars as to how one of ordinary skill in the art would be enabled to make the device (see page13, lines 9-21; page 13, lines 22-31; page 14, lines 6-10; page 14, line 21 through page 15, line 1; page 15, lines 3-16; page 15, line 20-30; page 16, lines 7-28; and page 17, lines 6-16). Applicant has essentially disclosed a cookbook-type listing of components absent the details on putting the components together to have an operable device. Particularly, it is indefinite as to the structure and details of the logic control unit 46 electrically control the control valves, lights, displays, and further operate as the necessary driver and control circuitry for pump 38 (see page 15, lines 22-28), and operate as a fuel monitoring system (see, page 16, lines 25-28).

Claims 47 and 48 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In regard to claims 47 and 48, a claim cannot depend from an already withdrawn claim (i.e. Claim 1).

Specification

The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: Applicant has failed to include details in regard to referenced application serial numbers on page 16, line 4 and page 17, line 1.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

Art Unit: 3751

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language; or the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

Claims 13 and 25-27 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Wessberg'740.

The Wessberg reference discloses a system for filling a vehicle (i.e. an electro-mechanical type device) comprising input and output connectors (7,6) with associated fuel vessels and valve components (2,3) associated therewith.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The Few and Edwards et al. references pertain to fluid transfer systems with associated logic control systems, and the Harris and Stricklin et al. references pertain to valved quick-connect type couplings.

Art Unit: 3751
